We thank Ngong Ping 360 for this collab, which provides an opportunity for the public to learn the story of Red A,” said Ms. Leung.

Cinematic icon Raymond Lam played an important role in this unique Christmas celebration as well by working with visual artist Jessica Chiu from the Arts with the Disabled Association Hong Kong, and Ngong Ping 360's Managing Director Mr. James Tung on some of the Red A Christmas crafts and installations. Raymond said, “Receiving the invitation from Ngong Ping 360 was truly exciting. Being named as one of the world's top ten cable car experiences, Ngong Ping 360 is a source of pride for Hong Kong. This Christmas installation, created in partnership with the Arts with the Disabled Association Hong Kong using recycled Red A products, merges the memories of Hong Kong residents and Red A with iconic Hong Kong landmarks, creating a fresh and meaningful fusion. I am honored to be part of the unveiling ceremony.”

Reflecting on his memories with Ngong Ping 360, Raymond shared, “In my childhood, the most memorable aspect of visiting Po Lin Monastery was the winding journey to reach it. Now, with Ngong Ping 360, we have a new experience, traveling to Lantau Island, where we can enjoy the breathtaking views of Hong Kong's unique scenery. It provides a tranquil escape amidst our bustling lives.”
