Ngong Ping 360 Joins Forces with Movie "Four Trails" for Chinese New Year
Enjoy 15% Off Cable Car Rides with Movie Ticket Stub
Reappears Movie's Iconic "Post Box" to Bring New Year Cheer
Cable Car Opening Hours Extended
New Festive "Check-in" Game Offers Luck and Prizes

(Hong Kong, 17 January 2025) The perseverance of participants trekking along the Lantau Trail in the movie "Four Trails" tugs at the heartstrings. The inspiring movie will continue its "upward journey" at Ngong Ping 360 during Chinese New Year.

The iconic green post box from the movie, symbolizing the start and finish lines, will be recreated at Ngong Ping Village. Ngong Ping 360 will provide movie-themed cards for guests to leave cheer-up messages. Moreover, guests with on-day cable car tickets can redeem special movie-themed fai chun sets. Additionally, guests can enjoy a 15% discount on cable car tickets with their movie ticket stubs - offering an alternative way to "reach new heights" in the New Year!

To further celebrate the festive season, Ngong Ping 360 is launching a “New Year Good Fortune Check-in Adventure Map” game. Guests who choose specific cable car cabins will receive a complimentary map. By checking in at three locations, guests can redeem lucky cable car-shaped luggage tags. Furthermore, Ngong Ping 360 will extend its opening hours during the Chinese New Year period and arrange lion dance performances and God of Fortune appearances at Ngong Ping Village to share in the festive celebrations.

Ngong Ping 360 Managing Director, Mr. James Tung said, “Ngong Ping 360 has always been committed to promoting spots around Ngong Ping Village while offering an integrated, in-depth cultural experience. The Lantau Trail has long been popular among hikers, with many using Ngong Ping Village as a rest stop and supply point over the years. The movie 'Four Trails' has reignited Hong Kong people's passion for hiking, with scenes filmed at Ngong Ping Village showcasing Hong Kong's natural beauty. We believe in supporting quality films like 'Four Trails' and aim to continue promoting Lantau Island's natural scenery to both residents and tourists.”

Movie "Four Trails" director Mr. Robin Lee said, "I am delighted that 'Four Trails' is performing incredibly well at the box office, sparking discussions across various sectors of society. The film not only highlights the passion of the runners but also showcases the breathtaking natural beauty of Hong Kong. Among four trails, the Lantau Trail, situated near the picturesque Ngong Ping Village and the Big Buddha, offers a multitude of charming filming locations, truly earning its reputation as Hong Kong's backyard. Through our partnership with Ngong Ping 360, our aim is to inspire more individuals to discover Hong Kong's amazing outdoors and the pleasures of hiking."

Green Post Box in "Four Trails" to Reappear at Ngong Ping Village Movie-themed Cards to Send Cheer-up Messages

In the movie 'Four Trails', participants kiss the green post boxes at the start and finish points of hiking trails, symbolizing the beginning and end of their journey. A replica of these iconic post boxes will appear at Ngong Ping Village from 27 to 31 January. Ngong Ping 360 will provide movie-themed cards¹ for guests to write cheer-up messages, which can be posted in the "post box". Ngong Ping 360 will deliver these cards to the participants of 'Four Trails' after the event.

The upcoming Hong Kong Four Trails Ultra Challenge will be held from 29 to 31 January, with the Ngong Ping section of the Lantau Trail once again included in the race route. When participants pass through Ngong Ping Village and see the familiar "post box", they will surely feel the encouragement from guests, giving them an extra boost of motivation!

¹ Movie-themed cards will be distributed with cable car tickets while supplies last, on a first-come, first-served basis.

Enjoy 15% Off on Cable Car Tickets with Movie Ticket Stubs
Present Cable Car Tickets to Redeem Movie-themed Fai Chun Sets

From 17 January to 28 February, guests can enjoy 15% discount on cable car tickets² by presenting "Four Trails" movie ticket stubs, regardless of the ticket's date time or location. Simply present the movie ticket stubs at the Tung Chung or Ngong Ping Cable Car Terminal to enjoy this offer.

Additionally, from 27 to 31 January, guests with on-day cable car tickets can redeem for a set of movie-themed fai chun³ at the Tung Chung and Ngong Ping Cable Car Terminals or at the Holidays 360 Information Centre. The fai chun set, consisting of four pieces, represents the four trails depicted in the movie "Four Trails", allowing guests to welcome the new year with the resolute spirit of the participants.

² This offer applies to standard cabins, crystal cabins, and Crystal+. It does not apply to private cabins and other products.

³ Movie-themed fai chun are limited in numbers and will be distributed while supplies last, on a first-come, first-served basis.

“Check-in” at Three Spots of Ngong Ping to Win “Lucky” Luggage Tag

From 25 January, guests can redeem a "New Year Good Fortune Check-in Adventure Map" with on-day Crystal, Crystal+ or Private Cabin cable car tickets. Simply collect stamps from three locations - the Ngong Ping Viewing Platform, the "post box" at Ngong Ping Village, and the Di Tan (Altar of Earth) opposite to the Big Buddha - to receive a "lucky" cable car-shaped luggage tag. Guests can enjoy a fortune-seeking journey with family and friends during the Chinese New Year while exploring the Ngong Ping Village, the Big Buddha, and Po Lin Monastery!

Cable Car Opening Hours Extended to Foster Flexible Planning

To accommodate the expected peak season, Ngong Ping 360 will extend its opening hours during the Chinese New Year period. From 29 January to 4 February, the cable car will open daily at 9am. From 29 to 31 January, service hours will be extended to 8 pm, allowing guests to be more flexible in planning their visits.

Lion Dance Performances and “God of Fortune” Appearances To Welcome the New Year

Lion dance performances will be staged at the Ngong Ping Village Pavilion from 29 January to 2 February, daily at 12:30 pm and 3:30 pm, adding traditional festive elements to the celebration. The “God of Fortune” will make appearances at Tung Chung Cable Car Terminal from 11 am to 3 pm, and at Ngong Ping Village from 12 pm to 4 pm, 29 January to 2 February. Don't forget to hurry over when you spot the “God of Fortune”!

About Ngong Ping 360

As a major tourist attraction located on Lantau Island in Hong Kong, Ngong Ping 360 offers guests an exciting and unique natural and cultural experience. The Ngong Ping Cable Car stretches 5.7 km from Tung Chung to Ngong Ping and is the longest bicable cable car system in Asia. It offers a visually spectacular 25-minute journey with panoramic views of the flora and fauna of North Lantau Country Park, Tung Chung Bay, the Hong Kong–Zhuhai–Macao Bridge and Hong Kong International Airport.

In 2022, Ngong Ping 360 launched “Crystal+”, a new type of cabin developed in France and Italy. All sides and the bottom of the “Crystal+” cabin are made of fully transparent tempered glass, providing our guests with 80% visibility and an unobstructed 360° panoramic view of Lantau Island to create an extraordinary travel experience.
